ഇതാ ഞാൻ നിന്നോടു കൂടെ ഉണ്ട്, നീ പോകുന്നിടത്തൊക്കെയും
നിന്നെക്കാത്ത് ഈ ഭാഗ്യത്തേക്കു നിന്നെ മടക്കി വരുത്തും ;
ഞാൻ നിന്നെ കൈവീടാതെ നിന്നോടു അടുളിച്ചെയ്തതു നിവർത്തിക്കും. ഉദ്പത്തി 28:15

"Behold, I am with you, and will keep you wherever you go, and will bring you back to this land. For I will not leave you, until I have done what I have promised you." Genesis 28:15

Bible Portion: - Genesis- Chapters 25, 27, 28, 32 & 33.

Isaac and Rebecca had two children, Esau the elder one and Jacob the younger. When the kids grew up Esau became a hunter and Jacob remained at home helping his mom. Isaac liked Esau very dearly and Rebecca liked Jacob much. When Isaac grew very old, he lost his eyesight.

One day Isaac asked Esau to go hunting and bring savory meat cooked, as he liked to bless him. Hearing this matter, Rebecca shrewdly called Jacob and gave him the meat of two goats deliciously prepared and sent him to the blind Isaac to receive the blessings of the elder son. Jacob was dressed and made up similar to Esau in his appearance to cheat his father Isaac.

Unknowingly Isaac blessed Jacob. After sometime, Esau came with the game cooked savory dish and went to Isaac. Then Esau understood that his younger brother Isaac cheated him and received the blessings already from his father. Realizing this he decided to kill his brother for cheating him.

When Jacob and Rebecca heard the plan of Esau, Jacob ran away from the house to his uncle's house at Paddan Aram. That was a very far place and on his way when the sun set, he stayed at a place all alone with a broken heart for what he has done. He might have been grieved for what he has done and slept there by keeping a stone as his pillow. During his sound sleep, he saw a beautiful dream. God's presence appeared to him and spoke: "I am with you and I will keep you and take care of you wherever you go." Jacob became very happy when he knew that the Lord God loves him and forgave the mistakes he has done. He then went peacefully to his mother's home and met his uncle and family.

Jacob stayed with his uncle Laban for many years. He has worked for him by grazing the sheep. Laban gave his two daughters as Jacob's wives. God blessed him with many children, cattle, sheep etc. One day, God spoke to Jacob and asked him to go back to Canaan to meet his parents. Then Jacob made a good planning and arrangements for his journey with his children, servants and livestock and prayed for a deliverance from his brother's wrath against him. He prayed the whole night and God answered his prayer.

Jacob informed his brother Esau of his return and sent him good gifts. Esau came with a great crowd of accomplices to give his brother a warm welcome. Jacob's wives, children, servants, etc. bowed before Esau. They embraced each other. Esau forgave his brother who cheated him and went home peacefully. We too should love one another and forgive others' mistakes.

Message: Even though Jacob deceived him and snatched the blessing, his brother has shown mercy and forgiveness to him. God also forgave him. We too, siblings must love one another and forgive the mistakes of each other.
